

TIME SIGNATURE

The TIME SIGNATURE is the numbers you see right after the Treble Clef. Like 4/4 or 3/4.

The TIME SIGNATURE is a notational convention used in Western musical notation to specify how many beats are in each measure and which note value constitutes one beat.

In a musical score, the time signature appears at the beginning of the piece, as a time symbol or stacked numerals.