Notice the arrow goes UP, then the strumming goes upward, you can do it with a pick, or with your index finger.

In music, a strum or stroke is a note performed on the strings of a string instrument such as a guitar. The term arises from an action commonly used to play string instruments, which may be "struck"/"stroked", plucked or strummed, by brushing one's fingers over, or strumming

, the strings.
